Notice of Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USER AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

The practice acts to maintain the privacy if protected health information and provide individuals with notice of the practice's legal duties and privacy practices with respect to protected health information as described in this Notice and abide by the terms of the Notice currently in effect.

Provision of Notice: This practice provides its Notice of Privacy Practices to every patient with whom it has a direct treatment relationship. Notice is provided no later than the date of the first treatment to the patient after April 13, 2003.

The practice makes its Notice available to any member of the public to enable prospective patients to evaluate the practice's privacy practices when making his or her decision regarding whether to seek treatment from the practice. The practice provides its Notice via e-mail to any patient or other individual who so requests the Notice.

Documentation of Provision of Notice: When a direct treatment patient receives the Notice from the practice, the practice asks the patient to sign its "Receipt of Notice of Privacy Practices" form. The form is filed with the patient's medical record. If the patient refuses to sign the form, it is noted in the medical record that the patient was given the Notice and refused to sign the form.

Effective Date and Changes to Notice: This is effective April 13,2003. The practice reserves the right to revise this Notice whenever there is a material change to the uses or disclosures, the individual's rights, the covered entity's legal duties or other privacy practices stated in the Notice. Except when required by law, a material change to any term of the Notice will not be implemented prior to the effective date of the notice in which such material change is reflected.

If the Notice is revised, the practice makes the revised Notice available upon request beginning on the revision's effective date. The revised notice is posted in the practice's reception area and made available to all patients, including those who have received a previous Notice. Upon receipt of a revised Notice, a patient is asked to acknowledge receipt of the Notice.

Complaints: The practice allows all patients and their agents to file complaints with the Practice and with the Secretary of the federal Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS). A patient or his or her agent may file a complaint with the practice whenever he or she believes that the practice has violated their rights.

Complaints to the practice must be in writing, must describe the acts or omissions that are the subject of the complaint, and must be filed within 180 days of the time the patient became aware or should have become aware of the violation. Complaints must be addressed to the attention of the practice's privacy officer at the practice's address. The practice investigates each complaint and may, at its discretion, reply to the patient or the patient's agent.

Complaints to the Secretary of the Health and Human Services must be in writing, must name the practice, must describe the acts or omissions that are the subject of the complaint, and must be filed within 180 days of the time the patient became aware or should have become aware of the violation. Complaints must be addressed to: Office for Civil Rights, U.S. Department of Health and Human services, 233 N Michigan Ave., Suite 240, Chicago, IL, 60601, Voice Phone (312) 866-2359, FAX (312) 866-1807, TDD (312) 353-5693. The practice does not take any adverse action against any patient who files a complaint (either directly or through an agent) against the practice.

The practice discloses protected health information regarding victims of abuse, neglect, or domestic violence. The practice discloses information about a minor, disabled adult, nursing home resident, or person over 60 years of age whom the practice reasonably believes to be a victim of abuse or neglect to the appropriate authorities as required by law or, if not required by law, if the individual, abused and neglected nursing home residents, or disabled adults abuse.

The practice informs the individual of the reporting unless the practice, in the exercise of professional judgment, believes informing the individual would place the individual at risk of serious harm or the practice would be informing a personal representative, and the practice believes the personal representative is responsible for the abuse, neglect, or other injury, and that informing such person would not be in the best interests of the individual as determined by the professional judgment of the practice.

Uses and Disclosures for Health Oversight Activities: The practice uses and discloses PHI as required by law for health oversight activities. The information may be used and released for audits, investigations, licensure issues, and other health oversight activities, including, but not limited to hospital peer review, managed care peer review, or Medicaid or Medicare peer review.

Disclosures for Judicial and Administrative Proceedings: In general, the practice discloses information for judicial and administrative proceedings in response to an order of a court or an administrative tribunal; or a subpoena, discovery request or other lawful process, not accompanied by a court order or an ordered administrative tribunal.

Disclosures for Law Enforcement Purposes: The practice discloses PHI for law enforcement purposes to law enforcement officials.

Uses and Disclosures Related to Decedents: The practice uses and discloses PHI as required to a coroner or medical examiner and funeral directors as required by law. The attending physician is required to sign the death certificate and provide the coroner with a copy of the decedent's protected health information.

Uses and Disclosures Related to Cadaveric Organ, Eye or Tissue Donations: The practice uses and discloses protected health information to facilitate organ, eye or tissue donations.

Uses and Disclosures to Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety: The practice uses and discloses protected health information to public health and other authorities as required by law to avert a serious threat to health or safety.

Uses and Disclosures for Specialized Government Functions: The practice uses and discloses protected health information for military and veterans' activities, national security and intelligence activities, and other activities as required by law.

Uses and Disclosures in Emergency Situations: The practice uses and discloses protected health information as appropriate to provide treatment in emergency situations. In those instances where the practice has not previously provided its Notice of Privacy Practices to a patient who receives direct treatment in an emergency situation, the practice provides the Notice to the individual as soon as practicable following the provision of the emergency treatment.

Marketing Purposes: The practice does not use or disclose any protected health information for marketing purposes. The practice does engage in communications about products and services that encourages recipients of the communication to purchase or use the product or service for treatment, to direct or recommend alternative treatments, therapies, health care providers, or settings of care to the individual. These activities are not considered marketing and who did not participate in the original decision to deny. The practice informs the requester of the decision of the reviewing official and adheres to the decision.

The practice charges reasonable fees based on actual cost of fulfilling the request. The practice will determine the appropriate charge for providing the requested records and inform the requester in advance of providing the records. If the requester agrees to pay the fee in advance, the records will be provided. Otherwise, the records will not be provided, unless the Privacy Officer determines that the charge is burdensome to the requestor. Illinois law prohibits charges that exceed the following: $20.48 handling fee plus 77 cents each for pages 1-25, 51 cents each for pages 26-50, and 26 cents each for pages 51 to end' plus actual expenses related to the copying of x-rays, CAT scans, and similar. The practice limits charges for records to the amounts allowed under Illinois law. Requests for the inspection and copying of records must be sent to the Practice in writing. It should be marked "Attention: Privacy Officer."

Individual Rights — Request Amendment to Protected Health Information

The practice allows an individual to request that the practice amend the protected health information maintained in the patient's medical record or the patient's billing record. The practice documents all requests, responds to those requests in a timely fashion, and informs individuals of their appeal rights when a request is denied in whole or in part.

Generally, the practice will act on a request for amendment no later than 60 days after receipt of such a request. If the practice cannot act on the amendment within 60 days, the practice extends the time for such action by 30 days and, within the 60-day time limit, provides the requester with a written statement of the reasons for the delay and the date by which the practice will complete action on the request. Only one such extension is allowed.

If the practice denies the request, in whole or in part, the practice provides the requestor with a written denial in a timely fashion. The practice allows a requester to submit a written statement disagreeing with the denial of all or part of the initial request. The statement must include the basis of the disagreement. The practice accepts requests to amend the PHI maintained by the practice. The requests must be in writing and should be marked "Attention: Privacy Officer."

Individual Rights — Request Confidential Communications

The practice accommodates all reasonable requests to keep communications confidential, the practice determines the reasonableness based on the administrative difficulty of complying with the request.

A request for confidential communications must be in writing and on the practice's Request for Confidential Communications form, must specify an alternative address or other method of contact, and must provide information about how payment will be handled. The request must be addressed to the practice's privacy officer. No reason for this needs to be stated.

The practice accommodates all reasonable requests. The reasonableness of a request is determined solely based on the administrative difficulty of complying with the request. The practice will reject a request due to administrative difficulty: if no independently verifiable method of communication such as a mailing address or published telephone number is provided for communications, including billing; or if the requestor has not provided information as to how payment will be handled.
